

Short-term and Holiday Courses in Berlin

The EURASIA Institute is situated in the heart of West Berlin directly opposite the famous Memorial Church and just a stone's throw from Zoo Station and is a perfect starting-point for exploring Germany's Capital City.

Since the collapse of the Wall, Berlin has transformed into a pulsating world metropolis. Berlin's special charm emanates from its creativity, spirit of innovation, cosmopolitanism and tolerance, the interesting mixture of "East meets West" and multi-culturality. The political side of Berlin is encountered around the parliament (Reichstag) and the Chancellery – Berlin is home to the seat of government and also the capital city. The Potsdamer Platz reflects modernity, while the Museum Island reflects the city's historic side. A multitude of national and international artists and designers have settled in Prenzlauer Berg, Mitte, Friedrichshain and Kreuzberg, defining the districts' flair. Restaurants, cafés, pubs, clubs, bars and music clubs offer a diversified night life that is hard to beat.

The Institute offers various different holiday and short-term courses, all covering a wide range of interesting subjects: Communication and intercultural encounters are our top priority. Our leisure programme includes a rich array of activities which are designed for young people and take full advantage of the possibilities offered by the Metropolis Berlin.

Choose the course most suitable for you:

- Group tuition for individual applicants – Individuals are integrated into our courses after taking a placement test and have the possibility of learning together with young people from all over the world. Bookings should specify whether the required course is intensive (20 h/wk), super-intensive (30h/wk), standard (course only) or premium.
