

Learn Hindi with EURASIA!

After Chinese, Hindi takes second place amongst the most commonly spoken languages in the world, followed by Spanish and English. Over 600 million people use Hindi as their mother tongue and first language. In India Hindi has been the official language alongside English since 1965. In Mauritius and Fiji Hindi is spoken by the majority, and in Guyana and Surinam by a minority. In India, you can get by in the tourist areas with English. But if you speak and understand Hindi, the hearts of the people will be open to you and you will find friendship in a foreign world. With this language under your belt you can find a gateway into one of the many spiritual worlds of Buddhism. You will add another facet to your knowledge of and feeling for South Asia.
