

FOCUS GERMANY

Programmes for Government Officials, Civil Servants and Managers

Within the framework of our Focus Germany programme, we organise a range of tailor-made business seminars, including visits to international companies as well as to ministries, public authorities, educational establishments, consumer organisations and institutions related to international business. Such visits may also be coordinated to coincide with important international trade fairs taking place in Germany. The programme covers many innovative aspects of German economic and business life, society, state-of-the-art industry, education and technology which have traditionally enjoyed worldwide renown. A particular focus is placed on environmental issues, sustainability and corporate social responsibility in German industry, as these are considered to be essential for the future peaceful development of the world economy. Below is a selection of themes available for our programmes:

In each module we elucidate both theoretical (30%) and practical aspects (70%) of the particular focus theme. The standard length of the programme is 1 week but this may be extended on demand. A EURASIA Institute representative accompanies the group throughout their stay. In the afternoons and evenings, the participants have time to get to know Berlin while special activities can be organised for each group if required. We offer all forms of accommodation with different board options.

The package consists of various modules which may be chosen to make your tailor-made programme (per one week):

- Application module: visa documents including health and liability insurance coverage
- Seminar module: 20 academic hours* of seminars, company visits etc. (held in German language) in one of the above modules including course materials
- Excursions module: 2 half-day excursions (each 4 hours) and 1 full-day excursion including entry fees and guide
- Accommodation 7 days and 6 nights accommodation (in hostel with half-board)
